JUST PUBLISHED

The First Year of Latin

Based upon Caesar's
War with the Helvetii

By Walter B. Gunnison, Ph. D., Principal of Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Walter S. Harley, Instructor in Latin, Erasmus Hall High School. Illustrated. Cloth. 319 pp. $1.00.

"Among the many excellent features of the book the following impress me as worthy of special mention:

1. The orderly development of the work from the opening to the closing lesson.
2. Clearness of statement in explanations and rules.
3. The emphasis placed upon reviews.

This book ought to prove attractive to pupils and helpful to teachers. Its faithful use should secure what is absolutely essential to ultimate success in the study of Latin, a thorough mastery of the elementary principles."—F. E. Rockwood, Prof. of Latin, Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa.

Just a Word on Dress

Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote: "If one has keen sensibilities, it is perhaps a wise economy to go to a good shop and dress himself irreproachably".

We have learned that no keener sensibilities nor better judgment of styles exist than are possessed by young men and observant boys.

We wish them to learn that ours are "good shops".

TWO NOTEWORTHY LATIN BOOKS

Collar &amp; Daniell's First Year Latin

This book is intended to provide for the average class of beginners all the material required during the first year, both in grammar and reading. It combines the best features of the authors' earlier beginner's books with many important improvements.

Greenough & Kittredge's Cicero:
ORATIONS AND LETTERS

In addition to the Orations most frequently read, this book includes 33 pages of Letters, several maps, and a new plan of the Forum exhibiting the remarkable series of excavations begun in 1899.

The whole text is printed with long quantities marked.

Further information about these and other valuable Latin publications will be furnished upon application.
